

Matthew 24

ASVh with Comments

Summary. In this chapter, Jesus teaches His disciples and answers their questions. When they were on the Mount of Olives, they asked Him privately, "Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of Thy coming, and of the end of the world?" In His answer, the Lord refers to three things: warnings for the believers, all the troubles that will happen in the world, and the Lord's time of return. The Lord has warned all believers before time what will happen to the world and about the Lord's return, but the rest of the world needs to read the Bible by themselves and learn to pray. All the things the Lord described in this chapter will really happen to the world. When the Lord gives warnings in the Bible, we must be ready because it will happen. 1) The Lord's warnings to the believers: a) watch your faith; b) they will attack the Bible, be aware of your heart; c) they attack the Bible to wither the faith in the believer's heart, that is the beginning of false christs to come; d) they will fake finding Bible manuscripts, then wrong translations will be produced and many false christs; e) the Bible is the temple of the Holy Spirit on earth, and all of their attacks are directed to destroy this temple; f) be wary as false christs and false prophets will arise performing signs; g) the gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed to the whole world and then the end time will come; h) watch for the abomination of desolation when the world wide will have a fake Bible and will start to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem; i) the ones that endure to the end will be saved. 2) The Lord talks about the troubles that will happen to the world: a) wars and rumors of wars; b) wars between the giant ones; c) famines and earthquakes; d) tribulations and persecution of Christians; e) Christians will be hated by all nations and many will fall and betray one another; f) many false prophets will arise and lead many astray; g) lawlessness; h) love of many will grow cold; i) great tribulations such as has not been from the beginning of the world and never will be again will happen before the Lord's return; j) cosmic disasters. 3) The Lord's time of return: a) after the great tribulation the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven and He will come on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory; b) all people on earth at that time will see the sign of the Son of Man at the same time in a vision from the Lord; c) only the Father knows the day and the hour; d) be faithful at all times no one knows the day and hour; e) There will always be a remnant of believers from beginning, first man born until last man will be born before the Lord returns.

24 ¹ And Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on His way; and His disciples came to Him to show Him the buildings of the temple.

Comments 24:1. "Jesus went out from the temple ... way." There is a time gap between the events in this chapter and the events in Chapter 23. The Lord travels non-stop, especially when it is close to His time to leave the earth. The Lord is traveling, traveling only, and there is no time for the Lord to rest; neither His body nor the heart of the Lord could rest. These events are close to the departure time of the Lord.

"His disciples came ... temple." This verse alone shows how the human mind thinks; the eyes see marvelous human works, marvelous of human handwork, but around the humans the marvelous things the Lord made nobody pays attention. This verse describes this clearly.

² But He answered and said to them, See you not all these things? truly I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Comments 24:2. The meaning of this verse is as it is written.

³ And as He sat on the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of Thy coming, and of the end of the world?

Comments 24:3. "The disciples came unto Him privately." This shows the picture itself; the Lord was never alone because He always spent His time with people around Him. His disciples had to find a private time to be able to talk to Him. The purpose of the Lord coming to earth is to teach and point the way to be saved and come to God, but people choose to ignore the mercy of God.

"These things" refers to the destruction of the temple.

"What shall be the sign of Thy coming ..." Now it shows the heart of His own disciples. When they start to think about what the Lord has said to them, the city destroyed, and His departure, then fear seized their hearts. The Lord wants to comfort them; it is nothing that they see but what they will see is what they should think of. Their minds were confused, as we are confused even if it is written. His disciples didn't have the written word; how much more confusing must have been for them?

Comments on the Temple of the Lord that will Help Understand End Time Events

The link (the Bible) between His temple on earth (the human body of dust of Jesus) and the Holy temple of His body (heavenly body of Jesus) will be destroyed by the people that He came to save. Humans have no heart or mind to think or appreciate what God has done, but they appreciate small things humans do (temple buildings). The narrow mind of humans, they cannot take the things they see (created by God); how can they take things they cannot see (heavenly things)? [Material and spiritual things both walk parallel to one another, but the human mind will not notice the invisible things of the spiritual, even being side by side. If they cannot appreciate the things eyes can see, the things that eyes cannot see are nothing to them. The earth itself is in the Lord; really, it tells us that the Lord is here already. He is telling us, I am already in everything around you, I am the temple, and nobody can destroy the body of Jesus, which is the true temple.

What we say here refers to the connection of the Lord's human body with the earth. The Bible tells us that all humans are from the dust of the earth. The Lord Himself, when He was born as a human, took the dust of the earth to form the baby. In His human nature, He is linked with the earth, and that is why His human body must return to heaven (to spare the earth, so it doesn't disappear).

Remember the verse in the Bible that says the earth is His footstool; the earth is part of His temple, and the universe itself is His throne; everything is in His throne. Imagine this, the earth itself is His creation; He created humans on earth to enjoy, but humans have destroyed the earth. Humans are destroying God's temple when we destroy the earth.

To link the earth and His Holy temple, you must look at the Bible as His temple, and people will try to change and destroy this temple (the Bible); when they come up with the idea as a human-made book (about the Bible), that will be the time when these verses will apply. Remember the Lord's body was never destroyed, He rose up in His body, and His body has returned to the Father because everything is in the Father. That is why He rose up in the body to keep the earth; (the earth) will melt away, and nothing will be left from the earth but the Lord. He is already linked with the earth by being born on the earth and taking the dust of the earth with Him back to the Father. This is the Father's plan, He created the earth and all things in it, but He also has a plan for the Son to be born from the dust of the earth to fulfill the circle of creation. Because the Lord's creation cannot completely disappear, it always will have the link. Think about the human body of Jesus; all will be gone, the earth will be gone, and there will be nothing left, but the Lord has the dust of the earth in Him. The dust of the earth, how to be up in heaven, but by the Lord Himself; He has spared the complete disappearance of the earth.

Now you go to the next step. Because of humans, this earth will be destroyed in the end, the earth itself will melt away. When they crucified the Lord, the link is disturbed (the link of love from the Father towards humans is disturbed, the Father feels hurt to see humans crucify His Begotten Son). The Lord's body (is) from the earth, and the connection (the Holy Spirit) between His body and earth is here, so the Lord is here. When He (the Holy Spirit) departs from earth, the earth will melt away. The Bible is the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit on earth; because the Bible is the Living Word, that is why it is referred to as the Holy Spirit's dwelling. The Bible is the link between the believers and the Lord.

⁴ And Jesus answered and said to them, Take heed that no man lead you astray.

⁵ For many shall come in My name, saying, I am the christ; and shall lead many astray.

Comments 24:4-5. These verses are warning humans, be aware of false christs that come to gather the Lord's children away (those that ignore the warnings of the Lord). Even in the Bible, many places have warned you to listen and hear to the Lord speaking in your heart and match them with the Word. Many people will come telling things; the proof is in front of your eyes for it is in the Bible. Use the Word to judge because, by your own understanding you will be led astray as only the Word can judge; meditate, pray, and let the Word be the food of your soul. The Word will be as a shield to protect you, that is the best protection available for humans. However, not everyone takes it, some have the Bible just to keep it on a shelf, but that will not help for you must read and meditate the Word.

"I am the christ." When they say, "I am the christ," that will happen after they come to tell you a new bible has been found; the new christ has been found (false bible translation). When that time comes, many, many false christs (false bible translations) will appear. When they attack the Bible, that is the beginning of false christs to come; be aware of your heart; they attack the Bible to wither the faith in your heart. When false christs come, there will be many warning signs, but many will choose to ignore them. Some will impersonate and claim to know the word more than many know and will use the false word to lead people to believe that they are the lord who has returned. They will even perform miracles, but do not forget the dark side has covered that person; the power they will use is not from the Lord, but the power of the dark side. They will use the bible because that bible is the fake one; the dark cannot use the true Bible, but they can use the false one, be aware. They crucified the Lord Jesus, but the Lord sent His Word and made the Bible for us. Because the Word that came, the Bible, is the root of faith for the new generation, the first thing to attack is this foundation. The Bible is the temple of the Holy Spirit on earth, and all the attack is to destroy this temple.

When they fake the finding of the Bible manuscript, then it will come to humans, wrong translations by humans. Some words in the true Bible that create double meaning will be cut off, and they will start to claim that the Bible has mistakes, and the false manuscript will be used to fix the true Bible. By technology, the fake manuscript evidence will be found, and with technology, they can make new things look old (make the evidence to support the new bible). This will make the majority of people fall into their trap; it will make many believe because they will come with many proofs to support their findings. They will start with a few words that humans believe shouldn't be there. [Nowadays, if you claim it is by the power of new technology that you found the truth, you will get humans to listen. Humans worship technology; technology is useful when it is used in the right way]. If they can change one word, then the false translation will be found to support the idea. They just need an idea to make humans think, and then they will believe. Be aware, be aware, read the Word, meditate on the Word.

⁶ And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you be not troubled: for these things must [] come to pass; but the end is not yet.

⁷ For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be famines and earthquakes in diverse places.

Comments 24:7. "Famines and earthquakes in diverse places." What we have seen, the worst is not yet as it will be. This verse tells us the worst will come; what is happening right now is nothing yet. One day, you will wake up and hear how many have died of hunger, and no one can help. It will be a worldwide disaster, not just in one area, but worldwide, and nobody will be able to help anyone. And people will hate each other; the hatred will give power for surviving.

⁸ But all these things are the beginning of travail.

Comments 24:8. "Beginning of travail" or "Beginning of birth pains." This is pain that you can't escape; you will have to take the pain like a woman giving birth. She can't stop; even it hurts, she still must go through it. This verse tells the same way, it is just the beginning, and it can't be stopped as a woman will give birth. Same as the suffering of life; it is suffering, but you can't avoid it, there is no choice to choose, that why it is compared with giving birth. How can Christians avoid it? The Lord will not just come and rain down peace for Christians only; that is why the Bible has told, whoever can keep pressing on until the end will be saved, many passages have shown this (See Verse 13).

⁹ Then shall they deliver you up to tribulation, and shall kill you: and you shall be hated of all the nations for My name's sake.

Comments 24:9. This passage tells about the time prior to the Lord's return. Everything mentioned here will happen before the Lord's return to take His people. So, be aware humans, do not give up; it is not a threat; it is a warning for all who believe. Do not worry for those who do not believe, because in that time not that they never heard of the Lord, they heard, but they ignored Him. Not they do not know, everybody knows, the Bible has warnings referring to this; it is a warning.

¹⁰ And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another.

¹¹ And many false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many astray.

¹² And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of the many shall wax cold.

Comments 24:12. "Iniquity" or "Lawlessness." This lawlessness relates only to the love of God; forgiveness for one another, love for each other. When there is no love, we give room for hate to come. If we keep filling up our hearts with the love of God, then hate has no room to come in. Always the Bible gives you a way out (to not fall into lawlessness), you just have to read (the Bible) and meditate, and you will find the way out.

¹³ But he that endures to the end, the same shall be saved.

¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then shall the end come.

Comments 24:14. "And this gospel ... preached." This means that every ear and heart knows about the Lord. Still, many places on earth have never heard of the Gospel yet; there is still a long way to go. In Canada itself, the Word still needs to be proclaimed; not everyone has heard about it. Canada is a big country, and the Gospel has such little spread as still many do not know the Lord, but going out to spread the Gospel when inside couldn't do it well. How can the blind lead the blind? See Luke 6:39.

"For a testimony" refers to the Good News (the Gospel) of the Son of God that He has come down on earth and shed His blood for all mankind. That is why the Good News must go throughout the earth, so when the end times come, no one can say it is not fair because they all have heard the Good News to be saved. The Lord is God of judgment; He gives all nations the chance to know and be saved. When the wrath of God is poured down, no one can speak against what God is doing.

¹⁵ When therefore you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that reads understand),

Comments 24:15. This verse refers to a period of time before the Lord's return; before the Lord's return, the Lord will give the understanding of this verse, and each individual, touched by the Word will receive the understanding. "Abomination of desolation," watch for the false translation and the fake bible through the whole world. If you have the fake bible (in the world), you will have a fake temple. Watch for the coming of the fake bible and who will build the temple in Jerusalem. If they claim they find something about the temple of the Lord that is described in the Bible and try to correct the Bible, the people who find this fake bible will claim the temple as written in the Bible is not true. They will find a place and build a new temple to fit with the new bible they find. It is blasphemy to claim that something is not true in the Bible. "Let him that reads understand," tells us that the weight of responsibility isn't the same; here, each individual is responsible for reading and meditating on the Word, but before the Lord's return, the Lord gives understanding.

¹⁶ then let them that are in Judaea flee to the mountains:

¹⁷ let him that is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house:

¹⁸ and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloak.

¹⁹ But woe to women that are with child and to them that give suck in those days!

²⁰ And pray you that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a Sabbath:

²¹ for then shall be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be.

²² And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

Comments 24:22. As the Bible has told, all disasters and tribulations will come upon the earth. The whole earth will be affected; the Bible tells clearly that there will not be many people left on earth. A few true believers who have a special duty will be left on earth for the work, but so few humans will be left over. All of the technology will be of no use in that time; just to find food alone will be hard enough, so there is no need for technology. It will be very hard for the ones left over, but the mercy of God makes that time shorter; otherwise, none will be left over.

²³ Then if any man shall say to you, Behold, here is the christ, or, here; believe it not.

²⁴ For there shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Comments 24:23-24. See comments on verses 4 and 5.

²⁵ Behold, I have told you beforehand.

²⁶ If therefore they shall say to you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not out: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe it not.

²⁷ For as the lightning comes forth from the east, and is seen even to the west; so shall be the coming of the Son of Man.

Comments 24:27. Everyone's eyes will see when the Lord returns, not by technology to see. That is why the Bible tells us like lightning (speed of the light), every eye will see; not technology light, the Lord's lightning, that is the speed discussed here. The speed of the Lord's return is faster than the speed of human technology; it cannot be compared. To understand, you can think that it is similar to the whole earth having a vision simultaneously; as the Bible says, vision is like going in a trance, which is how the Lord is seen when He returns. How can you make people on the other side of the earth see the Lord at the same time? Now the Bible tells us "in a trance"; this is the mercy of the Lord to give everyone a vision at the same time. This way, everyone has a chance to see at the same time the One God of the earth return. That is why everyone must be in a trance, to be in the exact same moment to see Jesus and eliminate boasting. Remember, in the Bible, it says that we shall see Him coming on the cloud.

²⁸ Wheresoever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together.

Comments 24:28. This sentence is in a spiritual way of thinking. All the carcasses of the earth, not human bodies but the souls of humans, the ones that did not come, all of them that did not come to the cross, will be thrown into one place. All the evil ones (the vultures) will go there and have a feast on, as it is written, they go to eat the crop (the carcasses).

²⁹ But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

Comments 24:29. Within this verse, there are two time gaps; the first one is the gap between human time and spiritual time (parallel earth time), and the second gap is the gap between the events mentioned. Imagine first heaven time as a whole, and within this time, there is contained the earthly time and the spiritual time which are separated by a gap. Hidden in time, one is the human time gap, one is the spiritual time gap. The spiritual world has its events timed by spiritual time, and the human world has its events timed by human time. The heaven time has knowledge about both times and what's happening within both worlds. Also, the Bible talks about many interferences (time overlap) within our world from the spiritual world.

“The sun shall be darkened” means that human time will be stopped, the Father uses His hand to block the sun, and this will create a gap between human time and spiritual time (spiritual time continues while human time is stopped).

The main point of this verse rests in the last part when “the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.” This is a time point of sharing event coming between human earth and parallel earth. Right now, they go along side-by-side; when they are parallel, we do not see; they must overlap for us to see. When the overlap time comes, we will see the parallel earth, but it is a long period of time for humans; many generations will pass through time before they can see the parallel earth with their eyes.

A warning comes for this verse. Watch! Some with fake understanding will come.

³⁰ and then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Comments 24:30. "Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven." See comments on verse 27 to understand how this sign will appear to all people on earth. How it can come to be to the east and west to see, the trance (vision) will come in effect for the whole earth. The sign that people will see will be the Lord sitting on the throne with the cloud above Him (this is mentioned in many places in the Bible). How glorious will be the scene for humans to see the throne of God coming down from heaven.

³¹ And He shall send forth His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Comments 24:31. "He shall send ... a trumpet." The sign will be in the sky, and humans will hear the sound from heaven. His army will blow the trumpet sound, shaking the sky, and even humans on earth could feel the sky shaking. This is the point when humans will see His army come in the sky riding on the clouds of heaven. Humans will see this just before the Lord comes, the army of angels riding on the clouds to proclaim the Lord's return.

³² Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and puts out its leaves, you know that the summer is near;

³³ even so you also, when you see all these things, know you that He is near, even at the doors.

Comments 24:32-33. It will come; people will use these verses to make-believe story, the story that has proven that the Lord has returned (this is talking about the fake christs). By what happens around the world, they will use this parable as a comparison to preparing the path for the fake christ.

³⁴ Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished.

Comments 24:34. "This generation" refers only to the generation of believers with true faith (from the beginning, the first man born, until the last man born before the Lord returns). Remember that this verse talks about true believers. "Shall not pass away" is the faith that the true believers have in them; it will not pass away from them because the Lord Himself is the one who helps them to keep that faith. Therefore, there will always be a remnant of true believers on earth from the first man on earth until the Lord's return.

³⁵ Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

Comments 24:35. This verse has a complete meaning. It is a comparison, so let the reader understand.

³⁶ But of that day and hour knows no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the Son, but the Father only.

Comments 24:36. In the original, it tells us clearly "neither the Son "; but, do not forget the Trinity itself, the God of Three but One in unity; the duty may be different, but the power and authority is One, and the Father is above all. Think about it this way, in the Father Himself is the unity of the Three, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; all of them are in unity as One in the Father. Remember as well, all is in the Father, and everything belongs to the Father.

Those that claim to know "that day and hour" have acted in abomination way; unforgivable sin; no one, not even the Son Himself, could speak to represent the Father, so no one can. How foolish they are! Do not listen to them; how dare they try to represent the Father? The Son and Holy Spirit couldn't represent the Father; will then the things He created represent Him?

³⁷ And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the coming of the Son of Man.

³⁸ For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,

³⁹ and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the coming of the Son of Man.

Comments 24:37-39. These verses explain the moment of the event that will happen; it is telling no one knows. The flood covered the earth, and no one knew; all of them did their own activity. In the same way, the Son of Man will come, no one knows, not even the angels, suddenly it will just happen. That is why no prediction is possible; the verse tells clearly, no prediction. These verses are not to judge the time; it is only to tell that no one knows the time.

Comments 24:40-41. These verses have a hidden meaning; the human body cannot be caught up in the air straight, but it will be in a similar way with the transfiguration; the human body is transferred and caught up in the air to glorify the Lord in the air. Then, all of those that have been caught up will go to be with the Lord. This is the first catch-up, but there will still be humans left on the earth. The first catch-up does not include the Christians in name, for all the Christians in name will be left over on earth because the Christians in the name don't have their heart given completely to the Lord.

"One is taken, and one is left" is just an example to tell that not all the people on earth will be caught up in the air, but there will be just a small number of people being caught up (not 50%); in the Bible, it tells us that a small number that will be captured first (See Matthew 22:14).

⁴² Watch therefore: for you know not on what day your Lord cometh.

Comments 24:42. "Watch" or "stay awake," that is the position to think about; here is not the body to be awake, but the heart. So, abide by the Word at all times, that the Word will keep your heart awake and waiting.

⁴³ But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through.

⁴⁴ Therefore be you also ready; for in an hour that you think not the Son of Man cometh.

Comments 24:43-44. As it tells here, we do not know the day or the hour when our Lord Jesus is coming back, so stay awake and be ready. That is why it is important for a follower of Jesus to meditate on the Word and memorize Bible verses; in that way, our heart stays awake.

⁴⁵ Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give them their food in due season?

Comments 24:45. "Faithful and wise servant." The faithful is the person who is willing at all costs to follow, and the servant is the person that the Lord has called for certain duties. There are many duties in the kingdom of God; the Lord calls many servants. The wise is the one that gets certain duties that need the wisdom to be done.

"Household" in this place refers to the church that holds onto the name of the Lord to worship, not those churches that are set up just for social service (entertainment), not for worshiping the Lord. "His lord" here refers to the Lord Jesus. "Them" refers to the believers who come to the Lord and worship the Lord among believers, not believers who stay in their place, no acting of worship to come to the Lord; for all need to come with the heart to worship and glorify the Lord. "Their food in due season"; now is the food not for the body but spiritual food, teaching the Word, not from themselves. Before teaching, come to glorify the Lord and ask the Lord for the message, not preparing one week ahead for the message. The message is right now to give to the people; the Lord gives right away the message when it is the right time. When it mentions "due season," this is the food for the spirit, so the soul interacts with the Lord each moment of time and brings joyful praise to glorify the Lord with the soul. And in those moments (the soul) needs different food; some food is received from reading, some food from meditating in the Word, another food from fasting (abstain from food for the human body to present the spiritual food for the soul).

⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he comes shall find so doing.

⁴⁷ Truly I say to you, that he will set him over all that he has.

Comments 24:46-47. "All that he has." This refers to the ones that the Lord calls for that place, a specific place. The Lord will give him (that servant) a duty to give the message according to the Lord's will, not the person's will. This is not easy, but it is based on trusting and asking the Lord for help.

⁴⁸ But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord tarries;

⁴⁹ and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with the drunkards;

Comments 24:48-49. "Evil servant." They are called this way because of the actions that the servant treats the Lord's children; whoever mistreats the Lord's children will be called an evil servant.

⁵⁰ the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he expects not, and in an hour when he knows not,

Comments 24:50. Be wary of the world; they will poison your mind that the Lord is not coming. This verse tells us that He comes when no one is expecting Him to come. Everything goes good for that person, success in life on earth but failure in the life of the soul. The Lord comes fast as the flashing of light; be aware (when He comes, you do not have time anymore to repent because His coming is too fast).

⁵¹ and shall cut him apart, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

Life and Faith Applications. 1) The Bible is the temple of the Holy Spirit on earth, and all the attacks are meant to destroy this temple. Watch the Bible translation you use; many fake translations will appear as time goes on. 2) Do not think that you can have a life of sin (slacking), and you will repent before you die or when you see the time is near for the Lord to come. Your life can end unexpectedly, and the Lord's coming is unexpected, like lightning flashing. You have no time then, so walk now in the way that the Lord expects you to walk, do not slack; the speed of the Lord's coming is faster than your heart can ask for forgiveness. 3) Life is full of troubles and tribulations, but we need to keep our faith alive until the end. 4) We need to join with other believers and worship the Lord in a group; it is never too late to start. Any time is good to worship, and any place is good to worship the Lord.
